QBRNTHSS

Ramon Casamajó (QBRNTHSS) is a musician and educator with a long career in multiple projects, always with a strong innovative and experimental flavour, as well as in different cultural initiatives and collectives. His background is in computer engineering and music, and has performed nationally and internationally.

His work explores a personal space between electronics, contemporary composition, and experimental music, with room for free improvisation, seeking tension between rhythm and abstraction, melody and noise, analog and synthetic.

TURBULENTE + ELOI EL BON NOI

Turbulente i Eloi el Bon Noi presenten "Ensenya'ns la pantalla!", una sessió de programació en directe on trobarem música electrònica amb dosis d'IDM i glitch, on la improvisació i els visuals àudio-reactius hi tenen un paper destacat. La música estimula els visuals, que responen de manera síncrona, creant un diàleg entre els dos artistes.
