Thursday Market

One of the fundamental characteristics of the economic and commercial development of Granollers has been and continues to be its traditional Thursday market, documented as far back as the year 1040. This multi-sectorial market is the living example of the city's commercial tradition and it has left its mark on the toponymy of some places that host parts of it (Plaça de l'Oli, Plaça de les Olles and Plaça dels Cabrits). Come to the market and stroll, look, choose and rummage... you will surely find whatever you are looking for.

The weekly market is held on Thursdays, except for holidays, when the market is held on Wednesdays.

The city of Granollers is the most important shopping centre in the Vallès Oriental. Today in Granollers you will find over 2,000 commercial and services establishments that will offer you all kinds of products of quality with the best service and personalised attention.
